Richard Casswell, Arable Farmer
Lincolnshire

“For some years now, Duncan & Toplis have provided me with an accountancy service that is tailor-made for my own farm business. The accounts that they prepare and the advice they give combine to give me a clearer understanding of the interactions between its various parts. Their young and unstuffy team have provided many helpful insights, which have contributed to making us more effective; and by linking with Castlegate Financial Management Limited they have given long-term tax and pension planning, which has been invaluable. Being local, and nimble on their feet, they are remarkably cost-effective.”

Mark Spencer, C H Spencer & Son

“The support and tax planning we receive from Duncan and Toplis has allowed our business to diversify and expand with confidence. Working together we have been able to put our business in a position of strength when the right opportunities come along.”
